

SOUTHERN AWARDS 2014

Two 'Dunsmore' ponies, bred by Amanda and Nigel Hill, took the Overall Champion and Reserve Champion in the 2014 EPS Southern Awards. A total of 38 ponies were entered and a new 'Breeders' award had been added to the prizes on offer, which was awarded to the Dunsmore Stud.

Clare and Dunsmore the Famous Grouse earned the large majority of their points on the Hunting field. Annette and Dunsmore Glenfiddich amassed most of their points through a very successful dressage year. Glenfiddich and Grouse are half siblings, born 1998 and 1999 out of Dunsmore Chaffinch.

In hand Champion was Threshires Zanatan owned by Susannah Muir who also gained points under saddle taking the pairing to third in the overall standings with Susannah's other pony Threshires Dickson also placed in the top 6 overall. Reserve in hand champion and also taking the Youngstock title was the moor-bred pony Hawkwell Goldikova owned by Peter and Alison Yates. Another moor-bred pony Tawbitts Mystic Little Madam ridden and her rider/handler Charlotte Matravers were Junior Champions.

The Southern Awards are open to ponies owned or handled/ridden by an EPS member in the following areas: Exmoor, Devon and Cornwall, Somerset/Dorset/Wilts, Glos/Berks/Hants, South East, Eastern, Herts/Bucks/Oxon. The entry fee is just £5 per pony and entry forms can be downloaded from the EPS Website or obtained by SAE from J Wharton, 52 Finchcroft Lane, Prestbury, Cheltenham, Glos, GL52 5BG or by email j.wharton@live.co.uk The competition runs annually from 1st December to 30th November with points given for all ridden/in hand activities..
