Judges' Comments:

Excuse the pun, but Fiona has frozen the moment perfectly. Could have been even better if it had been slightly under-exposed.

Judges' Comments

Stunning. Loved everything about it.

2nd PLACE (PRINT)
Elizabeth Rogers

Judges' Comments:
Full of movement
and Exmoor joi de vivre.

2nd PLACE
(ELECTRONIC IMAGE)
Caroline Orme

Judges' Comments:
Classic
performance shot, rarely seen with Exmoors.

CATEGORY: ACTION

3rd PLACE (PRINT)
Sally Nicholas

Judges' Comments:
Good photo but for an action shot better if not directly head on.

3rd PLACE (ELECTRONIC IMAGE)
Catherine Porter

Judges' Comments:
Although certainly action, this is great character shot with its impact being
through humour;
could have been
entered in either category.

Judges' Comments:

Made us chuckle as soon as we saw it, with no need for any caption.

Judges' Comments:

Laughed all the way to 1st Place - excellent.

2nd PLACE (ELECTRONIC IMAGE)

Joanna Webber

Judges' Comments:
A bit of judicious cropping would have made this even better as the bottom right is a bit distracting.

3rd PLACE (ELECTRONIC IMAGE)

Ann Long

Judges' Comments:

This is highly original and hilarious but unfortunately, the main photograph is not quite sharp enough to beat the top two.

CATEGORY: PONY OR PONIES IN THE LANDSCAPE

1st PLACE (PRINT)

Sally Nicholas

Judges' Comments:

Caught the atmosphere - ponies very much part of the landscape. Ponies beautifully alert and almost "on parade". Technically very good, capturing falling snow.

Judges' Comments:

This says it all. We would have been proud to have taken this picture. The use of light is perfect.

2nd PLACE (PRINT)

Sue Scott

Judges' Comments:
This captures the essence of Gathering Day and the rider on the horizon adds the finishing touch. We love the flowing movement of the herd. The picture could have been improved by levelling the horizon.

2nd PLACE (ELECTRONIC IMAGE)

Ann Long

Judges' Comments:
So close between this and 1st place but this lacks the romance and solitude of the winner.

Judges' Comments:
Very similar scene to last year's entry
so lacked a little on impact.

3rd PLACE (ELECTRONIC IMAGE)
Lisa Clarke

Judges' Comments:
Lovely light on the pony and excellent composition.
Foreground and background compliment
each other.

CATEGORY: PORTRAIT

Judges' Comments:

An archetypal perfect portrait, well executed. The blurred background puts all the emphasis on the pony.

A wonderful, intimate study.

CATEGORY: PORTRAIT

2nd PLACE (PRINT) : Fiona Macnee

Judges' Comments:

Whilst not quite as technically accomplished (i.e. not enough space on the left) this has captured the typical cheeky Exmoor to perfection.

2nd PLACE: (ELECTRONIC IMAGE)
Jackie Wharton

Judges' Comments:

Another great picture – such a close contest between this and 1st placed picture.

CATEGORY: PORTRAIT

3rd PLACE (PRINT) : Jade Pirie

Judges' Comments:

Nice study, we liked the dappled light.

3rd PLACE: (ELECTRONIC IMAGE)
Sam Wharton

Judges' Comments:

Love this picture – a charming study of the bond between pony and owner. Sadly, too low a resolution and picture size.

Judges' Comments:

Desperately difficult to split Supreme and Reserve but our final choice epitomises spirit, courage, action and the Exmoor character. We both wish we could have taken this photo and the Reserve.

RESERVE OVERALL CHAMPION

Judges' Comments:

Artistically, this is stunning. The light effect is perfect and it is a composition to be very proud of.
